As a dedicated mother of three, special education teacher, and community advocate, I am thankful for the opportunity to represent the citizens of Beaumont, California. My years of leadership experience on the executive boards of four collegiate organizations have equipped me with the skills necessary for effective governance.

Currently, I serve as the Fundraising Director of a nonprofit organization that benefits the special needs community. I am deeply committed to Beaumont, and grounded by my core values which are honesty, faith, hard work, and understanding.

I am dedicated to caring for our city and its citizens with the same passion and compassion I have for my own family. As a mother, I know that listening to those in need is the most effective way to solve the big issues. I will work for you, and with you, to ensure that the city we live in is the perfect environment to grow our business and our babies in. I thank you sincerely for your vote.
