COUNT:

Hello, I'm Joe Mathews, a U.S. Navy Veteran and Candidate for Beaumont City Council. A proud product of this community, I transformed my life from a high school dropout to earning a Bachelor's in Counseling and a Master's in Business Administration. My journey reflects dedication to overcoming challenges, and my goal is to help others do the same.

As the Legislative Intern Program/Youth Commission Coordinator, I create growth opportunities for youth and advocate for their needs with the support and guidance of the Board of Supervisors. Previously, as an Employer Services Consultant, I supported small businesses by filling employment gaps with county residents, strengthening our workforce.

With eight years at Morongo Tribal TANF, I implemented community assistance programs to uplift Native families, supporting their development to achieve self-sufficiency. This led me to become a certified facilitator for Native American Fatherhood and Families Association, nourishing family relationships and addressing key issues.

My personal and professional work is dedicated to making a difference in our residents' lives, promoting a brighter future for our community by ensuring every voice is heard and every resident thrives.

I ask for your support to help build a brighter future; together, we can make a difference.
